TransParcNet meeting 2016 of the EUROPARC FEDERATION in Saxon-Bohemian Switzerland, jointly organized by

â€œVisitor Management in Protected Areas"

We are very pleased to invite you to the annual TransParcNet meeting 2016. The meeting will take place in Saxon-Bohemian Switzerland at the German-Czech border. We look forward to welcoming you from Tuesday 7th to Friday 10th June 2016 in Bad Schandau.

This year's meeting will focus on "Visitor Management in Protected Areas" in transboundary regions. We will study experiences from transboundary areas and also enjoy views on the sandstone rock formations, deep gorges and romantic Elbe river valley, which annually attract hundreds of thousands of visitors.

We also seek your contribution and experiences with monitoring and management of visitors and with promoting acceptance for nature conservation in protected areas. The official opening of the TransParcNet meeting 2016 will take place on Tuesday 7th of June at 17.00 in Bad Schandau, Germany. Conference language is English.

Registration

The on-line registration, including reservation of accommodation, is available HERE (a new window with the registration form will open). Please note that the deadline for registration is April 22, 2016.

Departure

Excursion descriptions:

Excursions to Bohemian Switzerland on Wednesday, 8 June

Option 1: Prácheňská brána (Prebischtor) - the largest sandstone arch in Europe; guided by Jakub Afránek and Tomáš Salov. Medium demanding walk. By bus from Bad Schandau along the Elbe River to Hránsko in Bohemian Switzerland. A walk from the village Mezná along the traditional tourist Gabriela path (Gabrielensteig) to the famous Prácheňská brána (Prebischtor) sandstone rock arch, the most visited site in the national park. Large variety of morphologic forms (rock pillars, walls etc.), including explanation of weathering forms and processes. From the arch a nice view to the landscape of both, Saxon and Bohemian Switzerland. More at <http://www.pbrana.cz/en/> Coffee break in the old traditional restaurant Sokolův dům under the arch (Falkennest). The end of the excursion in the town of Dřívěš. From here by steamboat to Bad Schandau.

Option 2: Kamenice Gorge and Elbe Canyon; guided by Handrij Hřrtel and Petr Křřšř. Easy walk. By bus from Bad Schandau along the Elbe River to Hřensko in Bohemian Switzerland. A walk from the village Mezně into the wild deep Edmunds' Gorge of the Kamenice stream. Rich diversity of morphologic forms and plants, mainly cryptogams related to the microclimate inversion. A core zone of the national parks, however frequently visited by tourists. A traditional boat service in a part of the gorge (since 1890). More at <http://www.en.hrensko.net/> From Hřensko by bus to the spectacular Belvedere Lookout to the deep Canyon of the Elbe River (national nature reserve with large natural forests). Coffee break in the restaurant. For some impressions please click HERE. The end of the excursion in the town of Dřívěš. From here by steamboat to Bad Schandau.

Excursion to Saxon Switzerland on Thursday, 9 June

Elbe-sandstones born in the sea â landscape of outstanding natural beauty, guided by Jřrgen Phoenix and Jens Posthoff. Visiting some very picturesque sites in the Saxon Switzerland National Park and the landscape protected area, well known by tourists for more than 200 years. The excursion is by bus with short walks. First stop is at Hohburkersdorfer Rundblick, a fine viewpoint with an excellent look around over the Elbe-sandstones and neighbouring landscapes. Next point is Hockstein, a viewpoint above the Polenz valley, situated in the core zone of the National Park where we have a good view into one of the oldest nature reserves in Saxony with its characteristic forest zones and an exciting walk through the wolf-gorge (Wolfsschlucht) down to the river Polenz. The excursion ends at the best known âbalconyâ of Saxony â the Bastei above the Elbe valley, the most visited site in the Elbe-sandstones. Dinner is at restaurant Bastei.
